

Palladium Creative Fellowships

Supporting the Artists Who Shape Our Community

A program of the Palladium at St. Petersburg College

Palladium Creative Fellowships invest directly in local artists - providing funding, professional resources, and a stage to develop and share new work.

SINCE 2021
60+ Creative Fellows Supported	$114,500 Directly Invested in Local Artists	40+ New Works Developed

WHY IT MATTERS

- Direct funding for local performing artists
- Access to a professional performance venue
- Marketing, technical, and production support
- New work created in our community
- Public performances that connect artists & audiences

Join us in supporting the next generation of artists.

Presenting Partner (Exclusive): $25,000

Lead support for the Creative Fellowship program with high-visibility recognition across the season.

- Onstage recognition at multiple performances
- Logo/name featured in media releases and marketing materials
- Recognition on lobby signage and exterior banner (as available)
- Inclusion in weekly emails (40,000+ subscribers)
- Social media recognition across platforms
- Opportunity to host a pre-show reception in the Side Door
- Up to 20 tickets per performance or reserved table

Individual Program Partner: $5,000

Support an individual Fellowship project and performance.

- Onstage or pre-show recognition
- Performance Partner mention on lobby posters
- Inclusion in weekly emails (40,000+ subscribers)
- Social media recognition across platforms
- Up to 4 tickets per performance or reserved table
- Discount code to offer others on performance

All partners receive:

- Use of event name/logo in promotions
- Inclusion/recognition on website
- On-site engagement opportunities (lobby presence, tabling)

Contact: Laurel Borden, Project Manager

borden.laurel@spcollege.edu | 727.341.3112

